“ The best part of our friendship was whenever there was a problem a situation or anything that we felt we had to verbally connect with she was there. We spoke on the phone over the years even during her lunch breaks at the carpet store!!! We called each other in our earlier days for support ,etc. She called me at work on the morning of 9/11 because she felt she had to connect with me back east. We talked and cried and exchanged our fears about our future.

She called me when JJ got sick and asked me to pray for her which I did. We spoke when Pat and his family were moving to Texas to pray for them. We always talked about our children. All of you and mine too.

I promise you that I will pray for your mother's soul and for her entire family everyday.

My heart is broken because this time there was no phone call to me back east. We didn't reach out to one another. You weren't there Lynn. I love you and I pray for your eternal rest❤️
