

Anne Oakes Cramer

September 20, 1929 - February 22, 2026

Anne Oakes Cramer, 96, of Kansas City, Missouri passed away peacefully Sunday, February 22nd, 2026. She was born on September 20, 1929 to the union of Malcolm Christie Oakes and Lyra (Bahrenburg) Oakes in Norman, Oklahoma.

She is survived by her loving niece Linda Lee Webb; her grand-niece Christie Misiewicz and Christie's daughter Nittu Shidhe.

Anne was especially known for her family stories of the western frontier and Choctaw culture. She was an elegant lady; a respected medical librarian; a choir member at Second Presbyterian Church in Brookside; and an avid gardener. Her memory will be cherished by all who knew her.

In lieu of flowers, donation may be made in her honor to the UMKC library.

A service will be held at Brookdale Wornall Place (501W 107th Street, Kansas City, MO 64114) at 2PM on Saturday March 14th, 2026.

“ I always enjoyed my conversations with Anne when she came down to get her meal or if I took it up to her. She was elegant indeed. I am so very sorry to hear of her passing. God's blessings, peace and comfort to her niece and family. 💔
