“ Barb, thank you for sharing all your memories of the good old days. You loved sharing about how your home changed throughout the years. You loved your family and treated my daughter like one of your own. I am forever grateful for the love you shared. Until we meet again, you are truly missed. Love you!

“ What a great friend I'm going to miss. She was 10 years, 1 month, and 1 day older than me. That's how we kept track of our birthdays. I will not like having a birthday without her special Texas Sheet cake she made many times for me. The ones for the guys were really fun. We made many memories at our get together's playing cards and games. Love ya, Barbara

From all of the Richter gang.
