

Barbara E Jefferson

December 31, 1951 - September 8, 2018

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

PO

“ My fondest memories of my sister were when thunderstorms knocked out power, we'd sit in the dark with my brothers and she'd tell stories so scary I wouldn't go to the bathroom. Instead I'd try to hold it til daylight. Others were during my high school years. We'd sit up all night talking (and other fun things not legal). I didn't learn anything useful or moral but she kept my attention. At least I know what a tequila sunrise is. RIP

Poolie - October 03, 2018 at 11:20 PM