

Blake Aaron Tidwell

March 16, 1981 - May 31, 2016

Blake Aaron Tidwell, 35, of Blue Springs, Missouri, passed away on May 31, 2016 at Center Pointe Hospital. He was born on March 16, 1981 in Independence, Missouri. The son of Donna Marie Burns of Blue Springs, Missouri and Leroy Earl Tidwell of Mitchell, Illinois.

Blake worked in construction for most of his adult life, and he served in the Army Reserves. Recently, Blake graduated from Ultimate Academy with a certificate in medical coding.

He was a major Kansas City Royals fan, loved to fish, and most of all, loved to be around his friends. He will be remembered as a funny and gregarious man who attempted to inject fun and lightheartedness into everyday situations, quite often succeeding.

He is survived by a sister, Karree Ann Tidwell of Kansas City, Missouri; Aunts and Uncles, Steve and Tracy Burns of Granite City, Illinois, Timothy Burns of St. Louis, Missouri, Lynn and Bob Canada of Granite City, Illinois, Mary and Alan Benko of Granite City, Illinois and Debbie and Bobby Dunn of Mitchell, Illinois. He was also survived by multiple cousins, other extended family and friends.

A celebration of Blake's life will be held at Shelter #8 in Fleming Park (formerly named Lake Jacomo) in Blue Springs, MO on June 12, 2016 at 1:00 PM.

Hamburgers and hot dogs will be served. The family asks for guests to bring a side dish or desserts. Please no alcohol.

The family suggests in lieu of flowers please send donations to America Community Bank 1100 W Main St., Blue Springs, MO 64015 with attention to: Blake Tidwell Memorial.
