

Bradley Foster Coleman

January 19, 1956 - August 4, 2022

Celebrating the life of BRADLEY FOSTER WATT COLEMAN, SR (Bey or Coleman-Bey) born to Sidney Galloway & Ray Coleman (both deceased) in Washington DC. Bradley served 4 years In the US Army where he obtained his Automobile Mechanic and Small Appliance Repair Certification. During his lifetime Bey's accomplishments included certifications, Plumber, Electrician, and Carpenter. Bey was a Moor, where he obtained his Credentials of Ministry.

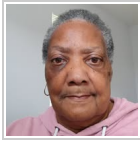

Bey was always there to help anyone in need even when he didn't have it. His love for his family, dogs and all children, tried to teach them ethics and True native history. He was a very special Man, the last of a dying breed. He was a gentleman, a scholar, an advisor, a doctor, a historian, a packer, a mover and a home renovation team all by himself. A Jack of all Trades!!

Preceded him in death his Mother Mamie L. Patterson, Grandparents - James & Cora Lee Watts, Sister- Ella Patterson Weaver & Nieces -Tijwana Bragdon & Etta Coley.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving devoted Wife Barbara Coleman. Children Belinda and Bradley Coleman III, (Angela Young Coleman, wife Deceased). Siblings - Baron Franklin, Shirley T Daniels, Elise Hall, Grace H. Flythe, Jean Taylor, Delores D. Weaver, Janice Butler, Georgia E. Wright, Rayford Weaver Jr. and a host of Grandchildren. Great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and Associates, who shared, lived, laughed and cared for during his Life's journey

Bey will be missed

Tribute Wall

“ My love, my Friend, my everything. You are gone but never forgotten. It will take a while to heal. You were always there for me through all my sickness, taking care of me, cooking & cleaning. You did everything. The day you left me was so unexpected, but my blessing was you were home with me. I still cry when I'm alone but you know I'll be okay. No more pain & suffering as you join family that went before you. Such a joyous reunion in Heaven. Love you and carrying you forever in my heart.

It been 4 years, and today I feel the pain of missing you still. House is and everything we built together. I went back in the house to find you and I have you with me no matter where I go. I know you spirit is always with me and protecting me. I am on to a new journey - finally retired - you helped me achieve, confidence, my strength, trust and unconditional love. Missing you so much.
