“ Remembering Brad Wiltse as a strong, proud individual. The Stoneking family moved to the corner of Manor Lane and Prairie about the same time that the Wiltse family moved in on the Prairie corner. The Wilson family and Booth family held a luncheon for us. The friendship began, especially, among the youngsters. They would be going to school together at Manor Hill School. One Halloween, Brad was dressed as Frankenstein. One of the best costumes I'd ever seen. He came over to our house and sat in our barber chair. We have/had a photo of that. To AnnaMary, Tim and Sarah Wiltse. Sorry for your loss. We shall always remember your family in a special way. Janet Stoneking Aguilar, Deedra Stoneking Davis, and Dustyn Stoneking Parsons.

“ We grew up as cousins playing games on the farm...tunnels in the hay mow and hiding behind tombstones in Alma. Stayed at his house during the 4H fair. Blessed for the memories and hope he is happy to be with his mom. Blessings to his family. Love Pat and Jack Paul

“ Sorry for your loss of this fine, kind, gentle, cheerful, loving father, brother, cousin, husband known as Brad. We cherished our time spent in his presence on our earthly journey. Knowing him was a blessing we shall treasure, until we all meet again. May his family and friends gather together and surround his family with love and support during this difficult time. Even though I didn't know Mr. Wiltse personally, I would like to send my expression of sympathy to his entire family and especially to his daughter Sarah. My thoughts are with you.

Forgive the misspelling of Wiltse. That was an autocorrect error.
