“ Bruce & I were best of friends at VHHS. My fondest memory is when he & I were in the lunch room discussing the upcoming JR/SR Prom. He asked if I had a date yet and I said yes and I planned to go. He indicated he didn't have a date and do he think I could get him one. I looked around the lunch room and spotted a girl that I had seen around VHHS but really didn't know too well. I went over and asked her if she had a date for the prom. She said no and asked if I was asking her to the Prom. I said no, but my friend Bruce (who I pointed out) to her was the person I was asking her to go with. She looked over and then we both went to the table where Bruce was sitting and I introduces Gail Weakley to Bruce. The rest of the story is pure history!
