“ I remember all of the Thanksgivings shared at my Aunt Paula & Uncle Carl's house. He was always so supportive of Paula and her collection of dolls. He would be right next to her when she was showing me all of them saying “isn't that one purdy?” “This one is fancy” haha I always loved how involved he was with her hobby!

I loved listening to his deep voice tell stories and his deep chuckle of a laugh.

“ As I look back and reflect on my memories with my Uncle Carl, I can't help but to think of one that I had with him towards the end of his life on Earth. I remember visiting him with my cousin, Lexie, and Carl suddenly waking from a nap and talking our ears off. Suddenly, he whips out his iPhone. Lexie and I laughed and laughed at the thought of Carl having an iPhone. Hearing his deep laugh will forever be embedded in my heart. Then, his wife (aunt) Paula appears with his favorite candy. The look in Carl's eyes when he saw his wife come into the room was pure love and joy. They joked, laughed, and genuinely loved and cared for one another. I know love when I see it, and Carl & Paula loved one another. May we all carry Carl's legacy, laughs, jokes, and love throughout life.

“ My fondest memory is when I witnessed the marriage of Carl and my sister. Such a happy couple. Carl was quiet at family gatherings but always taking it all in and always had a smile on his face. Love you, Carl! You took great care of my sister. You will be missed by all!
