

Carla D. Alsup

December 22, 1961 - January 3, 2025

Carla D. Alsup (maiden name: Cable) was born 12/22/61 in Independence, Mo passed away on 01/03/25 in her residence in Independence, Mo. She leaves behind one daughter: Raschel Word, Two grandchildren: Kameron Sapp and Alyssa Sapp, two great grandchildren, one sibling Greg Cable. Carla was preceded in death by her parents, Jackson Lee and Glendora (Pryor) Cable and sibling Chris Cable. She was known in community for working at local restaurants like Englewood cafe, Rosie's and Sandy's, but worked the past 10 years as a contractor for the government. Carla enjoyed spending time attending car shows and races.

Tribute Wall

ED

“ She will always be one of my favorite funny ladies. I will cherish her memory and will miss her dearly. Condolences to those who have lost this lovely woman.

Eden Davidson - January 09, 2025 at 09:06 AM

“ Peaceful White Lilies Basket was purchased for the family of Carla D. Alsup.

January 08, 2025 at 02:11 PM

“ A Memorial Tree was planted in honor of Carla D. Alsup.

January 08, 2025 at 02:11 PM

VT

“ Carla was a unique person. Her laugh was contagious. She could be so onery!! Was loved one and all here at the NRC. She will be especially missed by me

Valerie Troncoso - January 08, 2025 at 01:12 PM

CW

“ Carla was such a sweet soul and had such a great attitude during her illness. She would do anything she could for you. She loved her family and was their greatest supporter, defender and cheerleader. She will be greatly missed. ”

Charlotte Watters - January 07, 2025 at 01:28 PM