

Curtis Eugene Aikin

June 22, 1954 - December 31, 2025

Curtis Eugene Aikin, 71, of Gardner, Kansas passed away Wednesday December 31st, 2025. Curtis was born June 22nd, 1954 in Kansas City, Missouri to the union of George E. Aikin and Mary Lou Stoffle.

Curtis is survived by his son Michael Aikin of Merriam, Kansas; daughter Stephanie Aikin of Gardner, Kansas, his brother Ronald Aikin of Prairie Village, Kansas and numerous other loving family members, friends, and his dear dog Max. Curtis enjoyed a wide arrange of activities, hobbies, and interests; including going to the movies, driving the back roads, The Kansas City Chiefs and his alma matter Kansas State Wildcats watching football games of both teams every year. He also had his love for playing guitar and listening to rock n' roll music which the latter part was passed on to his son and daughter as well. He especially loved Ozzy Osbourne and would enjoy listening to Ozzy and old rock and roll with his loved ones. In honor of his memory and music, "Mama, I'm Coming Home!"

Curtis will forever be loved and missed by all who knew him. Known for his stoic nature, which was often quickly broken by the sharp sense of humor we all came to love, he carried within him one of the kindest hearts anyone could ever find. Curtis will be deeply missed, and his imprint on those who loved him will never be forgotten.
