“ I was privileged to spend a week or so with Curt and Steve in New Hampshire too many years ago. I don't think I have laughed that much since. One of the times that sticks in my mind is going to lunch at a little sandwich shop sitting at outdoor tables. Curt spotted someone at a table near us having a nice thick chocolate shake and it was a warm day, so he ordered one with his lunch. I wish everyone could have seen the look on his face when the waitress delivered a nice cold frothy glass of ...chocolate milk! When Curt told the waitress that he had ordered a chocolate SHAKE, she replied: That IS a chocolate shake! He explained that he wanted what the person at the other table had and she educated us all, explaining that if he wanted the same he needed to order a chocolate frappe. Apparently a chocolate shake in New Hampshire is shook up chocolate milk. :)

Nice guy, brilliant programmer, country boy, great friend, good humor, fond memories--hard to believe he's been gone for 5 years.
