"A Simple Path...The greatest disease in America today is not colon or heart disease; it's being unwanted, unloved and uncared for. We can cure physical diseases with medicine but the only cure for loneliness, despair and hopelessness is love. There are many in the world who are dying for a piece of bread but there are many more dying for a little love. The poverty in America is a different kind of poverty; it is not only a poverty of loneliness but of spirituality. There's a hunger for love as there is a hunger for GOD. If you find yourself starving for love; just know that as long as you have love in you; in your heart; that's all that is needed. You have the only tool required. We are living in paralysis times so remember these words when faced with uncertainty. Be without fear when facing your enemies; Be brave and upright so that GOD may love thee. Speak the truth always; even if it leads to your death. Safeguard the helpless and do no wrong. Most importantly; find out who you are... God Speed. Mother Theresa

"Peace is what I leave you; it is my own peace that I give you. I do not give it as the world does. Do not be worried and upset; do not be afraid." John 14:27

“ I don't have one single picture of Dannie and I or just Dannie cause we were always present, just living in the moment and never on the phones . He taught me how to live more in the moment and he taught me how to love people unconditionally without judgement . When I would say I hated something he would always remind me that "you don't hate anything Rachel" and he was quick to tell me cheese and rice cheese and rice not JChrist. We spent a lot of time together but I still feel like it was cut too short. But in that short amount of time i saw the real person he was and I loved him dearly. He truly was my best friend and helped me get through the toughest time in my life thus far. I'm so happy God put him in my path and I got to experience such a good person who would help anyone anytime. He reminded my of my grandpa cuz everywhere we went he knew somebody.

Dont get me wrong he made me mad too... never long tho.we got along good but I will have regret for the rest of my life for not getting the chance to say sorry. Or just talk to you after those text and it breaks my heart everyday. I'm sorry for being in my feelings as he would say, " you must have just woke up your in your feelings and stuff " □ I just wanted better for him. I hope I made his life a little easier and made him feel loved when he was with us.

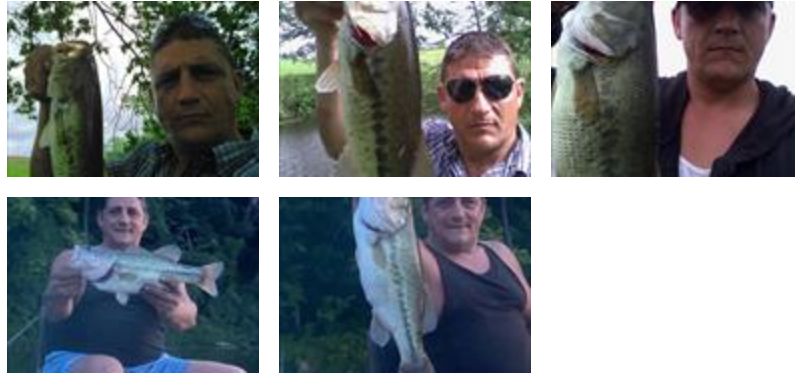

Two days before he passed he brought me a bday card that I'll cherish forever. And my dog is beside herself honestly . She sleeps on your blanket every night and truly misses her buddy. This house isn't the same without you. It's quieter, cleaner, and way more boring without you. I miss you, I miss us, I miss your impersonations of Doug ad char, morning rides to school cause my son missed the bus, all your nicknames you had for me, the yellow car game, late night food drives..... I just miss you dude. I didn't know I needed you so freaking much til you were gone and I'm strugglingI love you forever
