

David Lee Weikal

September 2, 1950 - October 3, 2023

David Lee Weikal was born on September 2nd, 1950 to Robert David Weikal and Alma Lee (Pace) Weikal in Sedalia, Missouri.

He graduated Sarah Smith-Cotton High School in Sedalia in 1968 and went on to Linn Tech drafting school in Jefferson City Missouri. He had owned the Shannon County Missouri Current Wave newspaper, was manager of printing and production of The Stars and Stripes newspaper in Germany as a civilian with rank, and worked for many years in the Newspaper and Printing industries to support his family.

David transitioned to his new home on October 3rd, 2023. He is preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Alma, his Sister Sheila Weikal and Brother Terry Weikal as well as his son-in-law Jason Forbes.

He leaves to cherish his memory;

Wife: Debra Denise Weikal of Kansas City Missouri; Brother: Doug Weikal; Sister: Louetta Ditzfeld; Sons: Thad Weikal and Todd Weikal; Daughters: Emily (Jason) Forbes and Jaime (Jason) Morehead; Grandchildren: Faith, Ali-Jean, Alyssa, Sophia, David, Jordan, Bella, Edison, Ada, Isac, and Isabella; Great Grandchildren: Autumn, Caden, Logan, Nolan, Madison, Emily, Oaklynn and McKenzie; as well as other Cousins, Nieces and Nephews.

Tribute Wall

GG

“ Over the last 20 years, I enjoyed many interesting conversations with Dave on our respective driveways. He was the consummate storyteller, regaling me with unusual tales of military goings-on and other out-of-the-ordinary tidbits from his time working with the Stars and Stripes newspaper in Germany. I miss his presence in our neighborhood and wish for peace and pleasant memories for Debra and his family. Gae Goodman, neighbor

Gae Goodman - November 15, 2023 at 09:38 PM