Edna Rindner January 22, 1952 - February 6, 2023

Leawood, Kansas - Edna Rindner of Leawood, Kansas, was born on January 22, 1952, and passed away on February 6, 2023, after a battle with pancreatic cancer. She was born in Haifa, Israel, and immigrated to the United States from Vienna, Austria, in 1958 with her father, Wilhelm Rindner, and her mother, Eva Rindner. After earning her undergraduate and graduate degrees in Boston, Massachusetts, Edna spent her career working to improve the administration and delivery of health care. In that pursuit, she occupied executive positions at a number of prominent health care organizations based in Kansas City, covering a span of four decades. Most recently, she served as a member of the Board of Directors and Program Officer at a local nonprofit organization dedicated to assuring healthcare services for underserved populations.

Edna is survived by her sons, Samuel Keeton and Benjamin Keeton; her loving life partner, Dr. James Connors, and his three children and four grandchildren; and her brother, Eric Rindner.
