EDWARD ALVARADO

Ed passed away February 5, 2018—he was 64 years old. He made the most of his 64 years—his life was full. He loved and was loved by his wife Ginger, sons Marc and Lance, 4 grandchildren, 6 siblings, in-laws, numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and an entire baseball stadium full of friends! Ed had a knack for making people laugh. His smile was genuine, and his wit was quick. Ed always said, “It was good for a laugh!” so if you’re reading this and were blessed enough to know him, you know you laughed with him. Celebration of Life March 10, 4-7 p.m. at Pleasant Valley Civic Center Lower level, 6805 Sobbie Rd. 64068.

“ Some of our very best memories are laughing with Ed and Ginger and Brenna and Mike on a cruise. We built a special bond between us years ago, and have been blessed to be able to keep up with each other over the years. We grieve with Ginger, but also rejoice with her knowing that she will be laughing with Ed again someday in Heaven. I bet he has the angels laughing already. Love to Ginger and family ❤️
