Ernest J. Hatton, 67, Kansas City, MO passed away December 24, 2018. He was born August 2, 1951 in Brooklyn, NY, the third child born to Leona and James Hatton. He lived in Staten Island, NY for the first eighteen years of his life. He attended McKee vocational high school where he gravitated to wood working and carpentry. At 18 he developed a wanderlust to take to the road and preach the teachings of the Lord, Jesus Christ. Known for his spiritual and physical strength he worked as a day laborer. Years of this work may have broken his body but not his fervent love of God. He is survived by his siblings, Yvonne Meekins, Richard Hatton and Leonard Hatton. Ernest was preceded in death by his parents. His ashes will be taken by his brothers and laid to rest with his mother in Kahnawake, Quebec. "Weep not for me, for the Lord has lifted me from my brokenness, and brought me home... Hallelujah!"

“ Enie (why did we call him 'Little Ernie'?) was sunshine personified. He radiated his love of our Lord. Always happy, it was always a pleasure to see Ernie somewhere on the sidewalks of KC. Can envision him now on those golden streets where love has it's eternal day.

“ I met Ernie in 1973 at the House of Agape bible studies that were held three nights a week at 43rd & Harrison. He has remained consistent in his faith ever since those days, always greeting you cheerfully, always having a pocket full of tracts, and ready always to share his faith with any who would listen. May the Lord bless the memory of his life.

“ I cannot say enough good things about Ernie, sharing the word of God with people, always saying praise the Lord. He would always lend a hand. I always thought of Ernie as one big hearted person.
