

Frances (Patty) Jean Dickens

November 5, 1952 - January 20, 2019

Today we celebrate the life of Frances Jean Dickens, whom went by Patty. She was born on November 5th, 1952. Preceded in death by her father Harold Nathon Simons, and her mother Izetta Jean Simons; and her deceased siblings of one sister and three brothers. She left quite a legacy, with the living sister Connie Simons and two brothers Ronnie Simons & Robert Simons; Patty married Charles E. Dickens on October 27th, 1972. They had three daughters Sandy Becerra, Leslie Depriest, and Mary Dickens. A total of eleven grandchildren. Sandy with three, Leslie with five, and Mary with three. She also leaves behind an abundance of nieces, nephews, great nieces, and great nephews. She became a register nurse in 1992. She retired in 2001, because of a brain tumor, which later took her life on January 20th, 2019. With her loving eyes and sparkling smile everywhere she went, a heart could never forget.

Tribute Wall

“ I didn't know Patty personally but I know two of her granddaughters well. I know the pain they suffer from the loss of their beloved grandmother. I know also that grandma will leave a void that nothing can fill.
Love and prayers for the family in their grief and loss.

leana havner - January 25, 2019 at 05:51 AM

“ 1 file added to the album Family

Reflections Memorial Services LLC - January 24, 2019 at 11:55 AM