

Herman R. Haskins

August 21, 1947 - October 14, 2020

Herman R. Haskins, 73, of Belton, MO passed away on October 14, 2020 after a battling a long illness.

Herman was born on August 21, 1947 in Montreal, Canada, son of Pearl (Michaud) Simmons and John Haskins. He was enlisted in the US Navy from 1964 – 1972 as Military Mechanic. Herman married the love of his life Karla K. (Smith) Haskins and resided in Belton, Mo. until his final days. They fell in love instantly and were life long partners until her passing in March 2013. She was a very special woman that has always lived on through his memories. He missed her dearly.

Herman enjoyed spending time with his family and friends in Maine, Arkansas and Iowa. He cherished his relationship with his two girls more than anything. He was a man that took a lot of pride in gardening, loved golfing, fishing and grilling. He took up making crafts for the family so we would all looked forward to seeing what he created next.

Anyone who new Herman would say he was a loving husband, father, brother, grandfather and Uncle. He was a soft spoken and a very giving man. He loved to talk about his children and grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife Karla K. (Smith) Haskins , his mother Pearl Simmons and father John Haskins.

Herman is survived by his two daughters and sons in-law, Pearl & Bryan Grantham, April & Dan Brackett. Brothers, Charlie & John Haskins, sister June Strom. Grandchildren Katrina Dolan, Joseph Davenport, Amanda Paradis, Travis Grantham and Cody Brackett. He also got the biggest kick out of his two great grandchildren Hunter and Joe. He is also survived by many in laws, nieces and nephews that he thought very highly of.

His daughters would like to give a special thank you to Herman's best friend Bruce Bullard for always being there for their father. A heartfelt thank you to his home care nurses, especially Hillary. Hillary treated our father like he was her own and we are truly appreciate her.

A celebration of life will be held in Maine with his daughters, family and friends. Time is TBD.
