

James Riley Davey

January 27, 1952 - April 25, 2024

James Riley Davey, 71, of Raytown, MO, passed away peacefully at Centerpoint Hospital in Independence, MO on April 25, 2024 due to natural causes. James Davey, son of Charles Richard Davey and Elva Davey; brother of Mike Davey; and brother-in-law to Marsha Davey, is survived by his two children James Allin Davey and Jennie Swoboda.

He is also survived by his five grandchildren, Henry Swoboda, Charlotte Swoboda, Betsy Swoboda, Davey Swoboda, and Butch Swoboda. James worked as a sales representative in Kansas City for a majority of his life up until retirement. James was an active athlete in high school running cross country and track, then went on to attend college at Marymount College in Salina, KS. James eventually became an avid soccer fan, introducing the sport to his children which played an influential role in their development as athletes. Even when times became tough he carried that same unforgettable smile and sense of humor. James was a loving father to his kids and a friend to many. He always wanted the best for others and will be greatly missed by his friends and family.
