“ I love you and miss you my Son
Wish you had stayed home with me the night violence took you away. I want to thank you for spending your last two days Of life with me. I will remember them always and forever. I believe that your plans to turn your life around were sincere and ..we would have done it together. God has other plans for you. I pray that your life is a statement to your Street Family .. I find peace in knowing your struggles are no more and you are IN a better place. I also pray that Grandpa and Roy handed you your Son Johnathan and you are with them Forever Mom
