“ Jim was the best neighbor we could ever ask for. I loved growing up next to him, Kim, and Christina. When Jim drove for the bus company, he drove our route. I was always the last one on the bus, but for some reason I'd never make it. He'd honk the school bus horn to wake me up, take everyone else to school, and be back in our shared driveway 30 minutes later to take me to school. I loved our 4th of July and Halloween parties that we shared. You will be missed Jim.
