

Janet Marie Solomon

April 17, 1961 - November 15, 2025

Janet Solomon was born on April 17, 1961, in Los Angeles, California, to Prescott Lunt and Betty Barnett. She passed away peacefully on November 15, 2025, at the age of 64, surrounded by the love of her family.

Janet was a devoted mother and the proud parent of four children: Harry, Sonia, Anthony, and Roy Dominguez. She was also blessed with 15 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren, all of whom she adored. Her family was her heart, and she carried immense pride in every generation that followed her.

Janet is survived by her kids Harry (Melissa) Dominguez, Sonia Dominguez (Shawn Anderson), Anthony Dominguez, and Roy Dominguez, 15 Grandchildren, and 11 Great Grandchildren. Janet's passing was preceded by the deaths of her parents, Grandparents and three loves Harry Dominguez, Ron Solomon, and Mark Auld

Throughout her adult life, Janet worked as a gas station clerk, a job where she found purpose, routine, and many lasting friendships. From Iowa to Missouri, she became well-known for her warm smile, sense of humor, and the way she treated every customer like a friend. Coworkers and customers alike remember her for her kindness, reliability, and genuine spirit.

In her later years, Janet lived in a nursing home, where she continued to touch hearts and form close friendships. Her ability to brighten a room never faded, and she quickly became loved by both staff and residents.

Janet will be remembered for her strength, laughter, and the love she held for her family. Her legacy lives on in the stories shared, the memories cherished, and the generations she helped shape.

She will be deeply missed and forever loved.

Since she was well loved by all there will be two services for her Celebration of Life:
