“ He did it. Nikola will graduate in the top 10 percent of his class. He got the gold pres presidential award. He is kind ,co compassionate, and since he has been working he often shares with others that need assistance or help or kindness. He knows I'm a sassy and he has a certain respect for that but he keeps me in check. Tomorrow we stand and I hope that your spirit is there with me to keep me standing.

“ Jason,
There are no words to explain the deep pain I feel for your loss. We could go days, weeks, or even a month of not talking for some reason or another, but we always had a knack of being able to pick up where we left off. We seen through eachother's bull, and shot straight from the heart. We had eachothers backs. Now I am so lost without my big cousin who has been more like a brother. Now I don't have anyone to tell me when I dropped my pocket, or to get back to the kitchen and make you something like a good lil woman. Lol
You inspired me to go back to school to get my GED, and to go to college and persue my dreams. You were there every step of the way inspiring me and encouraging me not to give up. You were my shoulder to lean on, and my ear to cry to when stuff got a bit overwhelming. There is so much about our relationship and my love for you that cannot be explained. I will never forget you and I will ALWAYS hold you close to my heart. I miss you so much.
Say hello to our loved one's in heaven.
I love you forever
❤️ Stephanie

“ Words cannot explain what kind of man Jason was. He was an amazing friend to me when I felt as if there were none. Much more than a friend, but a devoted brother. One of the smartest brains with the smartest mouth. I will definitely miss you my friend.
