

Johnathon Adam Brown

March 1, 1981 - May 26, 2026

Johnathon Adam Brown, 45, passed away tragically on May 26, 2026. Born on March 1, 1981 in Kansas City, Missouri, John was a devoted and loving father who found his greatest joy in spending time with his two daughters, Annabell and Adalaide Brown. He cherished every moment with them.

John had a deep passion for motorcycles and loved taking long rides. He also enjoyed building things and experimenting with new projects. Above all, he was a very caring man with a huge heart who would do anything to help anyone in need.

He is survived by his daughters, Annabell and Adalaide Brown; his brothers, Kenny Brown and Josh Brown (Antoinette); his sisters, Jessica Jacobs (Steven) and Mindy Padilla (Rene); as well as many nieces, nephews, aunts, and uncles. John was preceded in death by his father, Kenneth Brown (2017); his mother, Kathy Pettypool (2024); and Mary Brown (2019).

A Celebration of Life will be announced by the family at a later date.
