“ I met Josh about 10 years ago through playing games. He was instantly a great friend. Anytime our group got together we had to have Josh with us. He had such a great personality and anyone who met him knew it. There have been several nights playing where we'd stay up way past when we should be sleeping. Not because we enjoyed the game but because we enjoyed each other's company. Josh was a big part of that. He could always make us laugh and I'll always remember that. It will never be the same without you, Josh. You will be truly missed. R.I.P. Brother.
