

Judith M. Bean

May 3, 1950 - January 7, 2025

Judith M. Bean (maiden name: Miehl) was born 05/03/50 in Jackson County Missouri. Judy passed away on 01/07/25 in her residence in Lone Jack, Missouri. Judy leaves behind two daughters, Tonia Barber and Trisha Bean. Former husband and friend Michael Bean. Three grandchildren: Hudson Barber, Daisy Barber and Upton Barber. Judy was preceded in death by both parents, Doris Marie Shaw Miehl and William Ford Miehl as well as her brother William Daniel Ford Miehl.

Judy was known in her community as a feisty go getter. Her passions included the Native American community along with Ocean Conservancy.

A Celebration of Life service will be held: February 3rd 6:30PM, Lone Jack Christian Church, 200 West Lone Jack, Lee Summit Road, Lone Jack, Missouri 64070. In lieu of flowers or gifts, the family requests any donations go to: www.hopehouse.net

Tribute Wall

ES

“ Judy was in my cultures way, Osage and Crow, my sister. She was a good hearted person who always made me laugh and always tried to do good in this life. I'm going to miss her alot. Have a good journey home sister.

Eric Atchley Sr - February 02, 2025 at 09:48 PM

KB

“ Katheryn Blackwell lit a candle in memory of Judith Bean

Katheryn Blackwell - January 29, 2025 at 05:57 PM

KB

“ My heart goes Ty herl loved ones Bud and kaheryn

Katheryn Blackwell - January 29, 2025 at 05:56 PM

JD

“ My condolences. Judy and I had become good friends over the years. We would talk about many things including Chiefs, nature and family. I had been helping her with her phone and computer, tree and log removal, and we both were good neighbors to each other for the past nineteen years.

Jacob Dubin - January 29, 2025 at 03:10 PM