Judith Ann Miller (Simons)

November 12, 1941 – December 3, 2020

Judith Ann Miller joined the angels, dying peacefully in her sleep after a valiant battle with cancer on December 3, 2020. Her light will live on in those she left behind – sister and brother-in-law Marlynne and Maurice Snare, daughter Joy Kritz, son Keith Miller and wife Pam, grandchildren Austin and Michelle Kritz, Lacey and Wade Oestreich, Travis Kritz, Jessica and Tyler Wagnon, Kurtis Miller as well as Robbie, Taylor and Phillip Miller and their families, great-grandchildren Jocelyn and Marston Wagnon, the absolute lights of her life Ryder and little Charley, child-hood “bestie” Katherine and many other friends. A Kansas City native, Judy was born November 12, 1941 to Myrtle and Francis Simons. Judy met her beloved husband Robert at Benton Boulevard Baptist Church as a child and the two would go on to raise their family and work in the area. Judy’s office and secretarial skills were valued at Southwest Baptist University and Oklahoma Baptist University, Gresham and Co. and finally Humana. A talented musician and deeply faithful servant, Judy directed her church choir at Norfleet Baptist Church for many years. Her true calling came with the love and devotion she showered upon her family and friends. Judy exuded love and positivity like no other. She was full of creative whimsy and fun. Eager with a hug, a shared cup of coffee and much laughter, her life was a gift to all who were fortunate to have known her.

Out of concern for everyone's safety during this pandemic, a memorial has not yet been scheduled.

Donations in Judy's honor may be made to the Raytown Emergency Assistance Program (REAP) where she was a volunteer.
