“ Judy was one of my two older sisters. I was blessed to have both Marcia & Judy in my life. Back in the 1960's, I served the mass at Judy's wedding in the Catholic Cathedral. Then she started her large family and became a busy mom & wife. I remember she spent a lot of time in the kitchen and baked a lot of cakes, as it was always someone's birthday.

Years later, when her children were grown, we often saw Judy at the Fullbright Farm in Collins, MO which was a halfway spot between all our homes. So we still got to visit and catch up on family news.

We celebrated Judy's 70th birthday together. She had a big day with a great meal, funny decorated cake and lots of gifts. We continued to stay in touch by phone over the years, especially at birthdays & holidays.

I'm so thankful for our last visit together with Judy in Kansas City during October of this year. She was in good spirits, we had a really nice visit, looked at old photos and enjoyed a spaghetti lunch together.

I will truly miss her. Maybe not the bossy side of her, but someone had to keep all of us in line. With much love, your brother, Michael & Susan Geer
