“ May you RIP Judy, I love you old girl. Judy and I grew up across the street from each other. We shared 56 years and made many memories. We would lose track of each other for months at a time but we would catch up and our lives would go on. She was there for me as I was for her. We had many shenanigans together as little girls, teenagers and as grown women. Judy's laugh was contagious! She was truly one of a kind lady. Judy loved her family! Judy opened her heart and home to anyone that needed a place to call home. She was mom to everyone! She gave selflessly!! Life was not easy for Judy but she made the best of it... Judy loved people and loved life! We agreed and disagreed but we stayed friends through the good times and bad times...I will never forget our last conversation We both got to say I love you!! Old girl I will never forget our years together and all the memories we made as ornery little girls and as grown women. Judy i love you until we will meet again old girl.

“ Judy was a Great Mom and a fantastic cousin. I had a wonderful time when we were young and we would meet up either at the lake, at our house or when our parents got together. I had a good time at her benefit and when we went to the ball game. Love you all. So sorry for your loss. Hold on to the memories.
