

Judy Ellen Robison

December 20, 1961 - October 23, 2024

Judy Ellen Robison, 62, of Independence, Missouri passed away peacefully on October 23, 2024 surrounded by her Children and Grandson at the Groves Assisted Living. Judy was born on December 20, 1961 in Kansas City, Kansas. Her birth parents were Georgia and Harry Lee Bailey. Judy was 1 of 11 kids.

At a very young age, she was sent into the foster care system. At the age of 8 she found a permanent home with the Erwins. Judy was adopted by Linda and Duane Erwin at the age of 16. Judy grew up with her 2 sisters and 2 brothers. Angel, April, Tim and Levi. She graduated from Fort Osage High School in 1981. Judy was married to David Robison in 1982. They resided in a small town of Mason, Michigan. Just south of Lansing. They had 4 children together there. Ben, Sherrie Marie, Adam and Emily Robison.

Judy was very fond of music and movies. Her favorite singer was Kenny Rogers, whom she had seen perform live multiple times. She always enjoyed spending time with her best friend Carrie Kilgore. Judy would go and attend church and jam sessions on a regular basis. She loved to participate in singing and fellowships. Judy always loved being surrounded by her friends and family.

Anyone that came in contact with Judy would always feel welcomed. She always would greet you with a smile that would warm any heart. Judy always enjoyed a good joke and would dish out her own in return. She was never afraid to be goofy and make funny faces. Many times she was caught sticking her tongue out at her kids, especially her oldest son, Ben.

Judy is survived by her 6 sisters, Robin, Linda & Barbara Bailey, Angel & April Erwin, and her 4 brothers Larry & George Bailey, Timothy Waters and Samuel Levi Erwin. Her 3 Children, Ben Robison, Adam Robison and her Daughter Emily Robison. Her 4 Grandchildren, Brock, Harmony, Ryan, and Mackenzie, and many Nieces and Nephews.

Judy will always be remembered and loved forever in our hearts.
