Karen Elizabeth Scott, age 64, passed away on the morning of March 6, 2021, after an extended illness. She was born in Paragould, Arkansas on September 7, 1956, but grew up mainly in Michigan, moving some 40 years ago to the Kansas City area. She is survived by her father, Leonard Lee Mooneyham, her fiancé, David Klassen Jr., three sisters Theresa Reed, Lisa Schatzle and Linda White, her daughters Jill Abbott and Jeanette Johnson, and her grandsons Damen and Rylee Abbott.

Throughout her life she held various job and volunteer positions such as auto parts assembler, volunteer coordinator, hospice attendant and small business manager of a housecleaning business. Her faith was essential to her, and she touched the lives of everyone she met. She will be dearly missed.
