“ Jeanne and I became friends the minute they moved in our neighborhood. I believe it was 3rd grade. We were best friends during elementary, middle, and high school. So many wild and crazy memories and great times. I loved her parents too, and Suzanne (Sanner.) Her dad used to yell at me for using the glass sliding door. Camping in the backyard, Y camp every year, staying at the beach with my family, eating Kraft Mac & cheese every chance we had. Going to the pool hall, nobody probably knew that. The memories just keep flowing. Jeanne was a bridesmaid in my wedding after I moved to Georgia. RIP Jeanne. You were loved by many.
