“ One of my fondest memories of Kenny was when he came over and it had just snowed out. We bundled o the kids to go out sledding. Butch grabbed the four wheeler and was giving the kids rides on the sleds and we had one tube. Butch and Kenny decided it was Kenny’s turn on the tube. We had trailer that we hauled the four wheeler on with a ramp on the back. As soon as Kenny got on the tube Butch took off on the four wheeler and pulled him really fast around in a circle which needed up sliding Kenny up the ramp. Poor Kenny was holding on with all his might! When the tube went up the ramp it popped and Kenny went flying through the air and landed on the side rails of the trailer. Thank God he was okay! They laughed so hard and I thought they would never stop. Honorable mention is the first time Kenny rode a horse when we were at Autumns horse show. Kenny was grinning ear to ear and laughing and enjoying the ride. Will miss him dearly and I’m sure they are up there causing some sort of mischief because you never know with those two!!!

“ The fondest memory I have of my dear friend Kenny was when we got the kids wrapped up in warm clothes and went to play in the snow. Butch drove th four wheeler and was pulling the kids on sleds. He talked Kenny into getting on an air filled tube and Butch took off across the field as fast as he could with Kenny hanging on for dear life!! You could hear Kenny”s signature laugh over all the commotion. We had a trailer with a gate on the end that was used as a ramp when needed. Butch had Kenny flying around in a circle and he was on a tube. That tube went flying around the corner with Kenny hanging on for dear life, it then flew up the ramp and busted in mid air and poor Kenny ended up banging himself up on the side of the trailer. Half on and half off the rail thank God he was okay but those crazy guys just laughed so hard, I did not think they were ever going to stop. We all laughed! Wonderful times and crazy fun. Honorable mention was when Kenny rode a horse for the first time at one of Autumnns horse shows. The grin and laughter was priceless. I am sure Butch and Kenny are up their laughing and causing trouble. Love you and miss you both!

“Kenny was my son's best friend for many years. He was like a son to me. He left behind lots of special memories. We shared a love for Salmon Patties and Liver N Onions. Apparently, I was the only one who would make them for him. He was always at my beck and call for anything I needed. I'll miss our visits and talks. I'm so sorry that I wasn't there at the end, I chose to remember you in better times. Kenny, your passing brought back so many memories of Butch and you and Davey together. My heart is heavy. I loved you, Son. See you all on the other side one of these days. Mom
