

Lenora May Liggett

July 16, 1948 - September 7, 2020

Lenora May Liggett, 74, of Kansas City, MO passed away at home on September 7th, 2020.

Lenora was born July 16th, 1946 to Harry & Vera (Schneider) Etter in Muscatine, Iowa. She was a certified surgical technologist for over 40 years. She worked at Heartland Hospital in St. Joseph, Missouri for 26 years and later worked at Research Medical Center where she retired in 2011. Lenora loved working on puzzles and spending time with and watching her grandchildren.

Lenora was preceded in death by her daughter Kimberly Ann Vey-Clark, her mother, and her father.

She is survived by her loving husband Robert L. Liggett (Kansas City, MO); daughter Teresa Vey-Sherman (Kansas City, MO); granddaughter Aliyah Wilson (Kansas City, MO); grandson Jordan Bradford (Kansas City, MO); sisters Mary Shepard (Indiana) & Rita Etter (Muscatine, IA); brothers Harry Etter Jr (Muscatine, IA) and Bruce Etter (Columbus, GA); 4 grandchildren; and numerous other loving family and friends.

Per her wishes, no services have been scheduled.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations in her honor to ovarian cancer research or to AIDS research.

Tribute Wall

“ Lenny was the best co-worker ever! Such a dedicated, talented, and hard working woman. I always knew she had my back ! Rest In Peace Lenny!
Leslie Rogers
RMC OR

leslie Rogers - September 18, 2020 at 06:32 PM

“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Lenora May Liggett.

September 18, 2020 at 02:25 PM