

Lisa Jane Ross

September 7, 1973 - March 23, 2026

Lisa Jane Ross, 52, of Warrensburg, Missouri, passed away on March 23, 2026, at St. Luke's Hospice House in Kansas City, Missouri.

Born on September 7, 1973, in Clinton, Missouri, Lisa was the daughter of Phil H. Ross and the late Linda Lea (Wilson) Ross. She grew up in Clinton, graduating high school in 1991 before attending Central Missouri State University. After earning her degree in Criminal Justice, Lisa moved to Phoenix, Arizona, where she dedicated nearly a decade of her life to public service as a Police Officer.

Upon returning to the Kansas City area, Lisa continued her education, earning a Master's degree in Psychology. She spent the remainder of her career and life in the Missouri and Kansas region, eventually settling in Warrensburg.

Known by her friends as fiercely independent and private, Lisa was defined by her selflessness. She possessed a rare ability to put the concerns of others above her own, greeting everyone with an enchanting smile and a warm embrace. Those who knew her will remember her focused attention, which had a way of making whoever she was with feel like the only person in the world. She lived authentically, remaining true to her values and beliefs until the very end.

Lisa is survived by her father, Phil H. Ross, her step-mother, Diana Ross of Clinton, Missouri and her brother Chris Ross of Columbia, Missouri. She was predeceased by her mother, Linda Lea (Wilson) Ross, formerly Braams, her brother Darren Ross and her brother Jeffrey Ross.

In accordance with Lisa's explicit wishes, no funeral or memorial services are planned. Her family appreciates the honoring of her request for privacy during this time.
