“ Meeting Lisa on the pickleball court was an experience.! She would tell me she had just been playing an hour before with friends in tennis, so I was surprised she had the energy to play some fast-paced pickleball. She wouldn't run after a ball, but I was willing to go the extra mile for her side of the court. Then she would tell me afterwards, "SHE HAD IT !" She would disagree with the calls as we all do once in awhile, but then laugh after we would win a game. We had some talks about her memory, yet she didn't dwell on it. Her VW car was definitely a show stopper if you'd see her driving it or see it in the parking lot. Sorry to hear of your mom's passing, but know we enjoyed her quick retorts back to her opponents. Bless you and may God continue supporting you all in your loss.
