

Marilyn Ann Redinger

February 28, 1948 - November 15, 2022

Marilyn Ann Redinger, 74, sadly passed away Tuesday, November 15, 2022 at Shawnee Mission Medical Center. She was born February 28th, 1948 in Kansas City, Kansas to Diane Barbara and Harold James Williams. Marilyn attended Turner Elementary School and Kansas City Kansas Junior College for her general education requirements, then had her hopes set on attending The Kansas University School of Nursing. She graduated in 1969 and proudly worked as a Registered Nurse for many hospitals, clinics and agencies up until 2005. Marilyn then began working part time for Another Day Inc., caring for her son, Carl, full time in the home. She enjoyed several volunteer roles for organizations such as Hope House, Pets for Life and Special Olympics. She is survived by her three children: Carl Allen Redinger Jr. (51) and Ryan Michael Redinger (45) of Overland Park, and Mandy Annemarie Redinger (43) of Lenexa.

Marilyn's Memorial Mass will be held at 10:30 AM Friday, 12/02/2022, at Queen of the Holy Rosary Catholic Church, 7023 W. 71st St., Overland Park, KS 66204. Lunch to be served following Mass.

“ Marilyn lived an amazing life, and she was FULL of life. She conquered many obstacles with an attitude of "I can do this!" She was upbeat and lifted up others too. She was a giver, so unselfish. And she was FUN! She always made me smile and laugh no matter what. Rest in peace, Marilyn. . . I know you are dancing in heaven!
