

Marjorie Lee Elliott

February 3, 1934 - November 6, 2021

Marjorie Lee Elliott was born February 3, 1934 to Ward Hosler and Helen Whitten-Hosler in Hale, Missouri. She was born into a family of 7 siblings. She married Leo Robert Elliott on December 5, 1949 in Louisburg, Kansas and had eight children. She was a loving mother, sister, daughter, grandmother, and great grandmother to all those around her. She was a kind, gentle soul who made all those around her smile. She would give someone the clothes off her back as long as it kept them warm. She would let anyone come and sit for hours if they needed. She was a grandmother to all.

Marge died November 6, 2021 surrounded by loved ones. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, her sisters Ethel Hanavan, Betty Louise Hosler, and Helen Janice Freeman, her brothers Robert Hosler and Kenneth Hosler, her daughters Cindy Mayden and Lori Rearden, her sons Ronald Elliott and Jerry Elliott, and her granddaughter Hollie Rearden. She left behind her brother Jerry Hosler, her daughters Brenda Bell, Debbie Miller, and Teresa Gebhardt, her son Steven Elliott, and an abundance of grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

DM

“ Debbie Miller lit a candle in memory of Marjorie Lee Elliott

---

Debbie miller - November 24, 2021 at 06:21 PM

DM

“ She was the most loving, caring person in anyone's life that knew her. We will all miss you mom untill we meet again.

---

Debbie miller - November 24, 2021 at 06:20 PM

MI

“ Misty lit a candle in memory of Marjorie Lee Elliott

---

Misty - November 17, 2021 at 10:48 PM

BB

“ Brenda Bell lit a candle in memory of Marjorie Lee Elliott

---

Brenda Bell - November 11, 2021 at 08:39 PM

BB

Life will not be the same without you mom love you always and forever love brenda kay

---

Brenda Bell - December 01, 2021 at 04:18 PM