I am grateful to have spent time with Marjorie a couple days before her passing. I painted her nails and told her about my upcoming wedding. We also reminisced about her wedding day. She was so sweet and I loved when she called me "darlin". I grew to love her and cannot imagine how the family is feeling. She will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

I love my mom with all my heart and dearly miss her. I spent time with her in my home beginning August 21, 2017 and we had Christ centered devotions almost every morning. I look forward to seeing her again in Heaven with the Lord.
