“ Even though he was relatively introverted growing up his personality always came out over time, which is why he had so many friends. After hearing of Mark's passing, I thought about all the times we used to go to Lincoln School together over the summer to play baseball in the morning and then go home for lunch before meeting back there an hour later to play basketball. It had been probably close to ten years that I've seen or talked to Mark "Juice", but it still stings to know that somebody as kind and fun loving as he was is no longer with us.

My condolences to Shonnette, their kids, and Mark's parents and sisters. I'm so sorry for your loss.
