

Mary Ann Rebori

December 5, 1945 - August 26, 2022

Mary Ann Rebori, Age 77 of Galena, MO passed away peacefully with her loving husband Richard at her side on the evening of August 26, 2022. Mary Ann was born in Nixa, MO to Hazel (Carter) Cooper and Bryan Cooper. She graduated from Nixa High School in 1963 and went on to receive a degree in accounting from SMSU. Mary Ann met Richard at a church bowling function in December of 1976 and it was love at first sight for both. They married three months later March 4, 1977. Mary Ann was a loving stepmom to Tim (Marilyn) Rebori, Melissa (Michael) Arciga, and Christopher Rebori. She worked as an accountant at ACR Nally and left to work in the family business, Rebori's Shoes, with Richard. Mary Ann and Rick purchased land in Galena, MO in 1983 and Richard built their home there. This was their happy place. She loved the peace and quiet, her animals, the beautiful views, and her fruit trees. When not at the farm, Mary Ann and Rick were dedicated Drury Panther Basketball boosters. They rarely missed a game and enjoyed traveling to away games. She was a faithful member of Galena Community Church where she led music and for many years oversaw accounting. Mary Ann dearly loved her grandchildren Leyton (Rebori), Blake and Grant (Arciga). Mary Ann is also survived by her brother Bob Cooper of Royce City, TX and will forever be missed by her loving cousins and friends. Mary Ann was preceded in death by her grandmother and grandfather, Beulah and Clarence Carter and her mother and father Hazel and Bryan Cooper. Mary Ann will be laid to rest at Greenlawn North Cemetery. A celebration of life will be held at a future date at Galena Community Church. In Mary Ann's name, memorial donations may be made to Galena Community Church or The Heart Association.
