“ I will never forget the day I met you, it was at Grand Saloon and you showed me your smoking belly button! 😂 It was nothing but great memories after that. Like playing quarter bounce then teaching me to drive your stick shift pickup (never did stall it at the bottom of the hills, did I?!), bowling on leagues together and many nights of dancing at J.T.'s and Joshua's. I will always cherish the years you lived in Michigan with us, sharing in the birth and early years of Nicholas' life building a strong bond with him.

Thank you for accepting me into the family with wide open arms and unconditional love. You had a big heart and a big love for all of us. I love you and will miss you greatly!
