Michael I am sorry you are gone, but we all know you are in a better place now unlike this messed world we live in. Only you and I know what kind of relationship we had, everybody goes thru good times and bad, but all in all it wasn't that bad. My favorite memories throughout the 30 years of knowing you were when we were just friends, laughing a lot at stupid things, it seemed to me that you were more of a girlfriend to me because we acted so silly and had so much fun in those days, then when you did finally talk me into hook'in up with you it was great at first but it spoiled our friendship that was the sad part for me, so I guess after all you did teach me one good thing (never turn a good friendship into a relationship.) Now that you are gone I will miss you no doubt about that. I know you knew the Lord so I will see you again in Heaven when my time comes, so say Hi to my best friend in life and tell her how much I miss her please. For you that may not know who that was I am proud to say it was "Linda Kay McDaniels Willis" R.I.P. MY FRIEND!!!

“ Mike was truly a talented individual. He had a style all his own. You could and can recognize his art. His personality showed in all he drew. I and Many others wear his ink, which I wear proudly. Furthermore, he was handsome inside and out,. Sincere in most endeavors . Always meant well. A gentleman he was.. He was a great friend and fun to hang with I will miss him much.
