

Nathan Alan To

June 14, 1987 - May 24, 2014

Nathan Alan To passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, May 24th, 2014. He was born on June 14th, 1987 in Hampton, Iowa. For the last six years, Nathan lived in Kansas City, Missouri; where he had an abundance of wonderful friendships. Nathan's passion was music, and he spent time writing and producing as time allowed. He was planning to fulfill his dream of being in the music industry in New York, New York, beginning August, 2014.

Nathan is survived by his loving life partner, Eric Fleming; mom, Ramona Reiter and her husband Alex; his siblings, Caedyn Reiter, Megan and Dalton Shunkwiler; and his step-father, Larry Shunkwiler. Nathan is also survived by his grandparents, Larry & Bev Wolff, Dean Shunkwiler, and several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Nathan is preceded in death by his sister, Chelsea To; and grandmothers Judy Wolff, and Dixie Shunkwiler.

“ We use to hang out when we were younger I remember spending time with him at the swimming pool we went everyday in the summer. I use to come to his house and he would show me some of his love for music by making beats in his basement and would sing to them with his sister. He was a nice guy very personable person. He was a good friend and its sad that he has passed away at such a young age.
