“ Norma was a wonderful lady! She and Larry welcomed me into their lives and home As another daughter when I was going through one of the worst times in my life. My own family had not been there for me and Norma and Larry loved me, gave me advice, were always cheering me on throughout my life! I love your whole family! Norma I'm glad you are not suffering anymore! May peace be placed upon your entire family and friends as they move forward!

“ When we (the Trotter girls) were young, we looked up to the Miles girls. American Bandstand was popular then and I used to look for Norma, Sharon and Carol on the show. I imagined them dancing and whirling to the music. When we visited, they'd show us all the latest dance moves. I always wanted to be just like them. Norma was so beautiful, as were Sharon and Carol. We'd get the Miles' hand-me-down clothes and I can remember wearing dresses that I'd seen them wear. It made them special.
