

Philip Christopher Weimer

May 3, 1958 - February 20, 2021

Philip Christopher Weimer, 62, of Blue Springs, MO, passed away unexpectedly, but peacefully, in the early hours of February 20, 2021.

Phil was born on May 3, 1958, adopted as an infant by his loving parents James and Alice Weimer. Phil has always had strong ties to the Midwest and New England, having spent most of his years in Nebraska, Missouri, and in New Hampshire.

In recent years, Phil enjoyed visits with his children on the East Coast, rides on his beloved Harley, and fostering friendships, old and new. He also dedicated much of his time to the Blue Springs Chapter of AA, where he was a part of a strong community and was passionate about sponsoring and helping others experiencing hardships.

Anyone who knew Phil, knew he was funny, outgoing, and that he loved his family and friends unconditionally. He was also immensely proud of his children, supporting them in any and all endeavors. While his presence will be sorely missed, there is no doubt Phil is resting peacefully in God's hands, carefully watching over those he has left behind.

Phil is predeceased by his father, James Weimer. He is survived by his mother, Alice Weimer, sister, Madelaine Heleine, daughter, Lillian Labossier, and son, Christopher Weimer, as well as extended family and countless friends.

As a veteran of the US Army, Phil will be put to rest at Arlington National Cemetery where private services will be held with immediate family at a later date. No other services are planned at this time, but the family encourages all to celebrate his life in their own way – take a ride on your motorcycle, grab a lobster roll, or simply be a friend to someone who needs one. Masses are also being said in Phil's name on a continuous basis at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Bellevue, Nebraska.

“ Phil was my roommate in college when we shared the upper half of a house at 26 and S St. We had many adventures and he was a good friend. We kept in touch and had reconnected after he came to one of Diane's Christmas parties. Always enjoyed his visits when he came to see his mother. He will be missed by the many friends he made.

Patt and I are so saddened by the loss of our friend, Phil. We witnessed his generosity to his friends, and his big heart in action. He was encouraging, flattering, and yet would hold you to your truth. He had a talent for respectful conversation, witty humor & we loved our phone calls over the last few years, Needless to say, we cherish our time with him which spans over decades. Much love to his family—he spoke so highly of each of you.

*Phil, rest fully and completely in Divine Light and Peace. You will be missed and remembered in so many ways. RIP, friend.
