“ I am heartbroken to hear of Becky's passing. We reconnected on Facebook and dealt with losing our parents, sadness and grief. We both looked to special things in life that reminded us of our parents, butterflies especially. I pray she shows you she is still there looking over you always. I am so very sorry.

I moved away from Ankeny at the end of our eighth grade year but I have NEVER forgotten our friendship. I thank God for Facebook for allowing me to reconnect with her. Rest In Peace, Becky, and may God comfort those mourning her passing. 🙏

*Brad, I am so sorry to hear about Becky's passing. Dan Hayden and I were together Thursday and he mentioned it. You know I know all to well how it feels. My heart goes out to you. I'll say some prayers for you. It's a hard road to go down.
The pain never goes away, but it does get easier to bear as time goes by.*
