“ Ricky you were the best cousin. Always there telling me how much you loved me. Sharing your happy times and your challenges. We got to know each other on a very intimate level and knew and accepted each other for whom we are/were. I have thousands of saved texts and cards and well wishes from you that I will cherish and look at from time to time so I can "hear" your unique voice. I do not think you knew how very special a person you were. You really did have a bright heart and attitude and it touched me all my life and will continue to. May your soul soar to heavenly heights and may you be reunited with all of your beloved friends and pets and family in heaven. Love you always. Your cousin.

“ Hi my name is Kirk Nelson, I meet Ricky in 1982, we became fast friends and remained so through the years. We sometimes went for long periods of time without seeing each other but we we did it was always as if time had not passed at all. I will never forget the fun times we shared over the years, some good and some maybe a little shady, but that's what made Ricky, Ricky. He will be greatly missed. RIP now sweet friend.

“ I met Rick when he was in Chicago through one of my best friends and Rick and I were immediate friends. He did my hair for me and we went to Montrose beach together and just sit and talk for hours. I adopted his dog Lucy, a pug, and he would come to my house often to visit Lucy and the minute he stepped into my house the music would start and the dancing and Rick loved Lucy so much... it would just be a big party. Rick you were my sunshine no matter how down I was, you picked me up and instantly made my day. I love you Rick and I know you are walking with the angels now... Lucy is still going but she will soon join you. RIP my friend.
