

Robert "Bob" Lee Ward Sr.

September 8, 1958 - October 4, 2020

Robert 'Bob' Lee Ward Sr, 62, of Kansas City, Missouri, entered eternal rest October 4, 2020, at St Luke's Plaza Hospital.

Born September 8, 1958, in Clinton, MO, to parents John and Elsie 'Ruth' Ward. He was a machinist by trade, but his many interests had him fixing and tinkering with everything from clocks to cars. He never met a stranger. He loved a good joke. He was proud of the hair he was able to keep. He also really loved 'talk to text', but that's a story for another time. LOL!

Above all else, Bob dearly loved his family and friends!! Until we meet again, Bob, you will be missed.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by wife's Kim and Debra, granddaughter Skyler Ward, brothers Alfred Stoneking and Hank Ward and sisters Lois Stewart and Twila Hayward.

He is survived by wife Karen DuVall, sons Robert Ward Jr and Clayton Ward, daughters Misty Nichols, Danielle Holliger and Megan DuVall, brothers John Devine, Dan Swicher and Tom ward, sisters Mary Henehan and Ruth Green, as well as 13 grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank everyone for their prayers and support during the past 9 months.

Memorial to be determined.

“ - One of favorite memories of Bob Ward was his skills with electronic repair. My father Howard gave him an old TV, at the time a larger more expensive one. Bob fixed & used it for a $1.19 cent electronic part!
- The last time I saw Bob, I think it was after had taken some tires & wheels to Bobby or regarding sister Kim's urn. We sat in front of his big screen to watch an old western show and visit. He liked to have people enjoy company that way.
